

WE<sup>3</sup>

FALL / WINTER 2012

WE<sup>3</sup>

In honour of the inspiring women artists of the 30's we have built a collection to dress the creative, intelligent, strong and entrepreneurial women of our time.

In a time of global political, social and financial upheaval the creative arts reigned strong. The radio became a household staple. The 'talkies' hit the big screen and ushered in the golden era of film. Surrealist art took the art world by storm. The number of women artists at this time flourished.

The role of the artist is to shed light where darkness lies – to bring meaning; to push humanity to think in different and new ways; to usher in new reasonings, new practices and deeper understandings. Our modern contemplations are not so dissimilar to those of the 30's. Unity, compassion, peace, stability and sustainability are what we seek.

Lead by example. Think differently. Practise courage. Truth is. We are one.
